

You're Invited

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

manatt

Maintaining California's Leadership in Cleantech in the Coming Decade: The View from Sacramento

Please join us for an interactive discussion with the senior advisors from the gubernatorial campaigns of Jerry Brown, Steve Poizner and Meg Whitman in what will likely be the only event of its kind to focus exclusively on the role of Sacramento—and the next governor—in maintaining California's leadership in the Cleantech industry.

Date/Time

Thursday
February 11, 2010
4:00 – 6:30 p.m.

Location

Frances C. Arrillaga
Alumni Center
326 Galvez Street
Stanford, CA 94305-6105

Directions

RSVP

Carmela Ochoa
866 653 6277
cochoa@manatt.com

Highlighted Topics Will Include:

- How did California become a leader? What role did Sacramento play?
- Are California's traditional strengths transferable to Cleantech?
- What are the biggest challenges?
- What about domestic/international competition?
- Will Sacramento's role change? If so, why and how?

Agenda:

- I. Registration 3:15-4:00
- II. Welcome and introductions 4:00-4:10
- III. Candidates' Introductions 4:10-4:40
- IV. Roundtable 4:40-5:45
- V. Audience Q&A 5:45-6:25
- VI. Concluding remarks 6:25-6:30

WOODS INSTITUTE
FOR THE ENVIRONMENT
STANFORD UNIVERSITY